FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Teacher | Student Exhibition

2/11/2021 - The Hearst Center for the Arts is bringing together work by seventeen regional and nationally-recognized artists in a new exhibition titled Teacher | Student. The show opens on February 16, 2021 and will run through March 28.

Teacher | Student groups artworks by artists that have learned from one another, both formally and informally. Through teaching and learning, techniques and ideas circulate; they marinate; they reemerge. Concepts and methods – some visible and others invisible—can provide a through line in work from teachers and their students. This exhibition invites viewers to move through a gathered selection of intergenerational artwork and discern what was picked up, what was embraced, and what was left behind. Participating artists include: Donna R. Charging, Charles Cohan, Teresa Cole, Tim Dooley, Shirley Eliason Haupt, Abner Jonas, Anita Jung, Ann Renée Lighter, Beauvais Lyons, Janice Marin, Dana Potter, Jo Siddens, Duane Slick, Linnea Sumner, Kyjuan D.E. Washington, Aaron Wilson and Molly Zuckerman-Hartung.

In conjunction with Teacher | Student, the Hearst Center is offering a Virtual Ekphrastic Drawing Workshop with Janice Marin on Tuesday, March 9 from 6:00-9:00 p.m.; a Virtual Artist Talk with Janice Marin and Molly Zuckerman-Hartung on Thursday, March 18 from 6:00-7:00 p.m. A additional Virtual Artist Talk with Aaron Wilson and Tim Dooley will be on Wednesday, March 24 from 6:00-7:00 p.m. For more information on how to participate, and for additional program announcements, visit thehearst.org. This exhibition is made possible in part with support from the Hearst's Robert and Shirley Berg Fund at the Cedar Falls Community Foundation.

The Hearst Center is located at 304 West Seerley Boulevard in Cedar Falls. More information on the Hearst Center and its programs is available at www.TheHearst.org, by calling the Hearst Center at (319) 273-8641, or follow us on Facebook. The Hearst Center is free and open to the public.
